What Is the State General Fund?

It's the largest and most flexible funding source. It supports:

- Department of education (43%)
- Department of health services – AHCCCS (15%)
- Department of public safety (10%)
- All other departments and agencies (32%)

Revenue comes from:

State Budget Process

Arizona uses an annual budget. The legislature must pass a balanced budget, but it can carry a deficit into the following year.

Any changes to the General Fund will undoubtedly affect state agencies and Medicaid.
